

My Celestial Objects Factsheet

Name _____

Moon

The moon is the only celestial object that have ever traveled to.

My picture of the moon

Star

The ___ ___ is an example of a star.

Stars are made of hot, fiery ___ ___.

Many stars ___ ___. This means that they seem to get dimmer and brighter right before our eyes!

My picture of a star

Comet

Comets are celestial objects which have _____ in them. When they are close to the Sun they melt a little.

This creates a shining _____.

My picture of a comet

Planet

Planets do not _____ like stars do. This is because they are closer and brighter than stars.

Earth is an example of a planet. Like all planets, Earth _____ around the sun.

My picture of a planet

Constellation

Groups of stars that make _____ are called constellations. Many constellations were imagined by people long ago.

My picture of a constellation

Meteor

Meteors are sometimes called _____ even though they're not really stars.

My picture of a meteor